

The album is named after John Baldessari, an artist whose work I greatly admire, and whose creative appropriation of discarded materials was a huge inspiration to the process of song making on this particular group of songs.

-Adrian Todd Webb

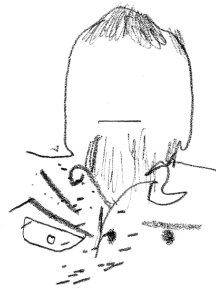

I used the following instruments to make this record:
 Casio Sk-10 toy keyboard
 Yamaha Portasound PSS-130
 ukulele
 an old iPhone
 Campbell's soup can broken Danelectro guitar

Hello.

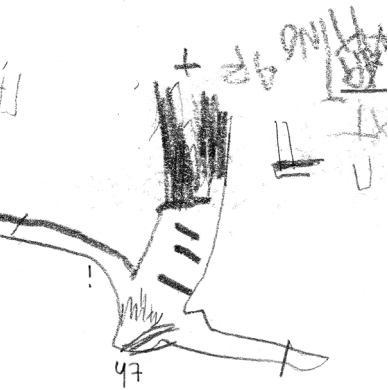

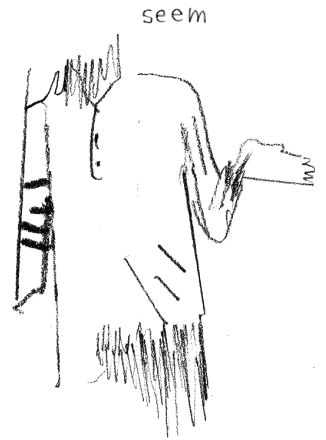

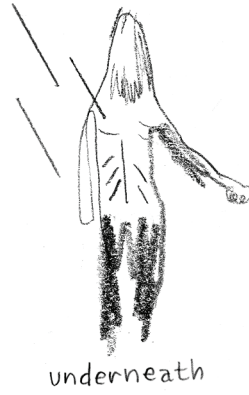

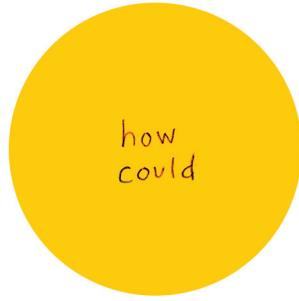

BALDESSARI

SEAMONSTER

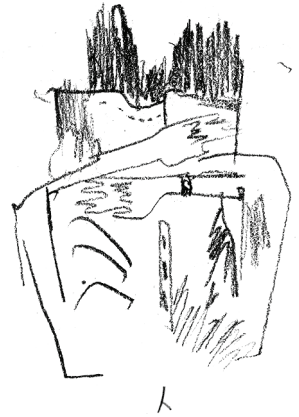

The song "Georgia, 1931" is not based on a painting, but a letter written in July of 1931 from Georgia O'Keeffe to the art critic Henry McBride. This letter also references her painting "The Lawrence Tree" - itself the subject of another song on this album. As it happens, "The Lawrence Tree" is the only painting on Baldessari I've seen up close.

Howard Finster
 Raoul Dury
 Arthur Dove
 Georgia O'Keeffe
 Franz Kline
 Pierre Bonnard
 Henri Matisse
 Vincent Van Gogh
 Paul Gauguin

The songs on Baldessari are named after works by or about the following artists:

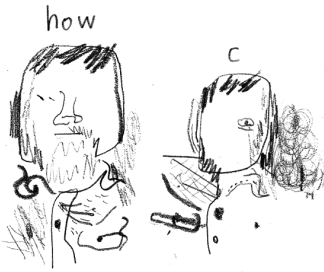

Baldessari

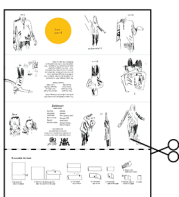

Seamster

Noa Noa	Adeline
Normandy	Dancers
Landscape	The Lawrence Tree
Rain or Snow	Georgia 1931
Parasol	Abstraction
Vincent's Chair	Howard Finster, Man of Visions

Produced by Adrian Todd Webb & Jacki Paoletta
 Mixed & Mastered by Jacki Paoletta at TapTap Recordings
www.toddbot.com | www.goldrobot.com/records images by w craghead www.craghead.com all songs ©2012 Adrian Todd Webb ASCAP

To assemble this book:

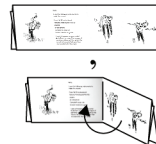

1. Cut along the dotted line above

2. With this side facing you, fold down the top third of the page

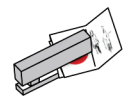

3. Fold in half top to bottom

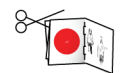

4. Fold in half right to left

5. Fold in half right to left again

6. Staple at the center spine crease

7. Trim the edges to release the pages

8. Look!